Re: Notification of Horry Telephone Cooperative, Inc.'s Acquisition of its Wholly -Owned Subsidiary, HTC Communications, LLC, Pursuant to
S. C. Code Ann. § 58-9-10

Dear Ms. Boyd:

Horry Telephone Cooperative, Inc. ("Horry") hereby notifies the Commission that it will assume all of the assets, liabilities and obligations of HTC Communications, LLC ("HTC Communications"), a single-member limited liability company of which Horry is the sole member. It is Horry's understanding that Commission approval is not required to complete this transaction.¹ We are submitting the within information for informational and notice purposes to ensure the continuing accuracy of the Commission's records. All services currently being provided by HTC Communications will be provided by Horry, and all authorizations held by HTC Communications will be transferred to and assumed by Horry. In addition to being excepted from the requirement to obtain Commission approval pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 58-9-310, this transaction is pro forma in nature because it does not involve a change of control.² Horry intends to complete the transaction on or before January 1, 2011.

¹ See S.C. Code Ann. § 58-9-310 ("a telephone cooperative association may acquire or incorporate a subsidiary corporation or a subsidiary cooperative association without the approval of the Commission.") HTC Communications, LLC is a single-member limited liability company of which Horry is the sole member. Horry will assume all of the assets, liabilities, and obligations of HTC Communications. Horry respectfully submits that this transaction is essentially identical to an acquisition of a subsidiary corporation for purposes of Commission approval. In fact, there is even less reason to require Commission approval for this transaction, because there is less structural separation between a single-member LLC and its sole member than there is between a subsidiary corporation and its parent. HTC Communications' predecessors, HTC Communications, Inc., and Horry Telephone Long Distance, Inc., were subsidiary corporations of Horry.

² See 47 C.F.R. §§ 63.03(d), 63.24(d). The FCC has noted that "pro forma transactions in general have no impact, or a de minimis impact, on the public interest . . . [and] reorganizations from one internal subsidiary to another do not as a general matter affect the manner in which service is being provided to the public or raise competitive concerns. See Implementation of Further Streamlining Measures for Domestic Section 214 Authorizations, CC Docket No. 01-150, Report and Order, 17 FCC Rcd 5517, FCC 02-78 (released March 21, 2002) at para. 50.

Description of the Parties

Horry Telephone Cooperative, Inc. was formed as a telephone cooperative association pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 33-45-10 et seq., and is subject to the Telephone Cooperative Act, S.C. Code Ann. § 33-46-10 et seq. Horry has been operating in the State of South Carolina since 1952. Horry is an incumbent local exchange carrier as defined in 47 U.S.C. § 251(h)(1). Horry is a rural telephone company as defined in 47 U.S.C. § 153(37). Horry has been granted authority to operate under an alternative form of regulation. See Docket No. 2003-15-C. Horry has been designated by the Commission as an eligible telecommunications carrier (ETC). See Commission Order No. 97-958 in Docket No. 1997-239-C. Horry is a carrier of last resort. See S.C. Code Ann. § 58-9-10(1)).

HTC Communications was originally incorporated in 1991 under the name Horry Telephone Long Distance, Inc. Its articles of incorporation were amended in 1997 to reflect the new name of HTC Communications, Inc. In January 2006, HTC Communications, Inc. was merged into a limited liability company that was subsequently named HTC Communications, LLC, with the limited liability company being the surviving entity. HTC Communications is authorized by the Commission to provide resold interexchange telecommunications services in the State of South Carolina. See Commission Order Nos. 91-1069, 1999-758, and 2009-449 in Docket No. 91-514-C. HTC Communications is authorized to provide local exchange telecommunications service in Horry County and those portions of Georgetown County known as the Waccamaw Neck and the City of Georgetown. See Commission Order No. 98-323 in Docket No. 98-049-C; see also Commission Order Nos. 98-974 (granting flexible regulatory treatment for local services) and 2009-449 (granting the request of HTC Communications, Inc. to change its name to HTC Communications, LLC). HTC Communications has been designated by the Commission as an eligible telecommunications carrier (ETC) for the purpose of receiving federal universal service support as a wireless carrier in certain areas of South Carolina. See Commission Order No. 2008-273 in Docket No. 2007-402-C. The assets of HTC Communications will be distributed to Horry, and Horry will assume all of the liabilities and obligations of HTC Communications. All outstanding agreements and licenses that are not already in Horry's name will be assigned to Horry, the parent company of HTC Communications.

Public Interest

This transaction will benefit and will be virtually transparent to HTC Communications, LLC's customers. These customers will continue to receive the same service they receive today, pursuant to the same rates, terms and conditions. Any future changes in rates, terms, and conditions will be made in accordance with applicable Commission requirements. In addition, HTC Communications, LLC customers will become members of Horry Telephone Cooperative, Inc., and will receive the benefits of cooperative membership, including but not limited to accruing patronage capital credits. HTC will comply with all federal and state requirements regarding the transition of customers from HTC Communications to Horry. The transaction is in the best interest of Horry and its customers, and will not adversely impact the general public interest.
